

"Le Kirchberg de Barr"

This trail offers very nice views over the town of Barr, the surrounding mountains and the Alsatian plain.

1 h KM 2.4 km

STOPS

1

Town Hall Place – Barr

Town Hall Place - +33 (0)3 88 08 66 65 – www.pays-de-barr.com

This Renaissance building was built in 1640 on the ruins of a castle. It is composed of three parts.

On the main part you can see a pediment with volutes and 3 statues representing justice, temperance and peace. In the yard there are beautiful double stairs.

The actual town hall used to be a court's office and a court.

Crédit photo : C. Dumoulin

Self-guided visit of the town : discovery trail, time required 1h -1h30

2

200 « Grand Cru Kirchberg »

M

This wine ages well and develops over time an impressive body, a delicate fruitiness and spicy aromas.

Location: Barr - Soil: Limestone - Exposure: South-east

Crédit photo : OTBB

In July and August, visit of the vineyard trail and of a traditional wine cellar, on Tuesdays, at 5 pm., paying. Departure: Tourist office.

3

2.1 The Museum Folie Marco

KM 30 rue du Docteur Sultzer - + 33 (0) 3 88 08 94 72

A fine patrician house dating from the end of the XVIIIth century, situated in a park of hundred-year old trees, the Folie Marco was built for the comfort of Bailli Marco. The house is now a museum containing collections of furniture, pewter ware and porcelain.

On the ground floor: Louis XVI, Empire and Restoration furniture.

On the first floor: Louis XV furniture with its marquetry-decorated chests of drawers. A permanent exhibition of porcelain, earthenware and pewter ware includes a selection of locally produced items.

On the second floor: Rhenish Renaissance furniture with fine 7-columned cabinets.

In May, June, July, August, and September: Open every day except Tuesdays, from 10 am to 12 and from 2 to 6 pm.

In October: Open Saturday and Sunday, from 10 am to 12 and from 2 to 6 pm.

Price: €5/adult, children under 16 free.

For groups of 10 or more, all year long. Book at the Tourist Office. Prices: €3

Crédit photo : C. Dumoulin

LOCATION

START : Tourist office - Place de l'Hôtel de Ville- 67140 Barr

1. Leave the Tourist Office by taking the stairs on your left to reach the Town Hall, bypass it and walk to the church.
2. Take the Kirchberg road on your left (yellow ring) and walk till you reach the E. Muller-Apfel Kiosk.
3. Take the way down on the right side of the monument Ed.Hering (Don't follow the GR 5).
4. Take the path marked with a red-white-red rectangle, which leads to the Wine Road (D35), and continue in the direction of Barr to return to the Tourist Office.

Office de Tourisme Barr Bernstein
Place de l'Hôtel de Ville - 67140 Barr
(+33) 03 88 08 66 65 - info.tourisme@pays-de-barr.com
www.pays-de-barr.com

