STEPS

Find the parking

From the D218 by car, don't miss the exit on the right in the direction of the Sandweg trail and take the gravel road to reach the parking.

Start

The trail starts on your right when you arrive from the Nideck road (D218). Follow the yellow ring (direction south-east)

First sculpture

After 300m, in a sharp turn on the left, look on the right hand side to see the first sculpture « Elephant Comb » from Iuan Bon.

Next...

Stay on the same path to see the sculpture n°2,3,4 and 5 which are respectively "549" from François Weil, "Le dialogue des géants" from Tomasz Domanski, "Le royaume du laboureur" from Bénédicte Weber and Sylvain Chartier and "Existe-t-il ou n'existe-t-il pas ?" from Christian Fuchs.

Hohenstein Castle

Leave the Sandweg forest road by taking the path on the left. At the next divergency, turn right to go to the ruins of the Hohenstein Castel and admire the valley from the panoramic view.

Next...

Go back and stay on the right at the divergency to continue the walk until the next sculpture.

Next...

Pay attention around you in order to see the sculpture n° 6 and 7, respectively "Le portique des géants" from Alfi Vivern and "Sans titre" from Kim de Ruyscher.

Back to the parking

A bit further, trun left following the mark of the yellow ring. After approximately 400m, you will se the last sculpture : "Le château égyptien de la poupée de la fille du géant" from Çerardo Arribas. The path brings you directly to the parking.
