

A place of freshness...

It's a refreshing hike to discover this attractive place of greenery and freshness: The waterfall of the Hohwald.

1h

6 Km

STOPS

1

Square Kuntz – Le Hohwald

+33 (0) 3 88 08 33 92 – www.pays-de-barr.com

An attractive mountain resort in the heart of fir trees forest where you can see: waterfall, arboretum and contemporary art. In a protected natural setting, 120 km of marked trails offer the perfect opportunity to get back to nature.

Crédit photo : O.T. Barr Bernstein

2

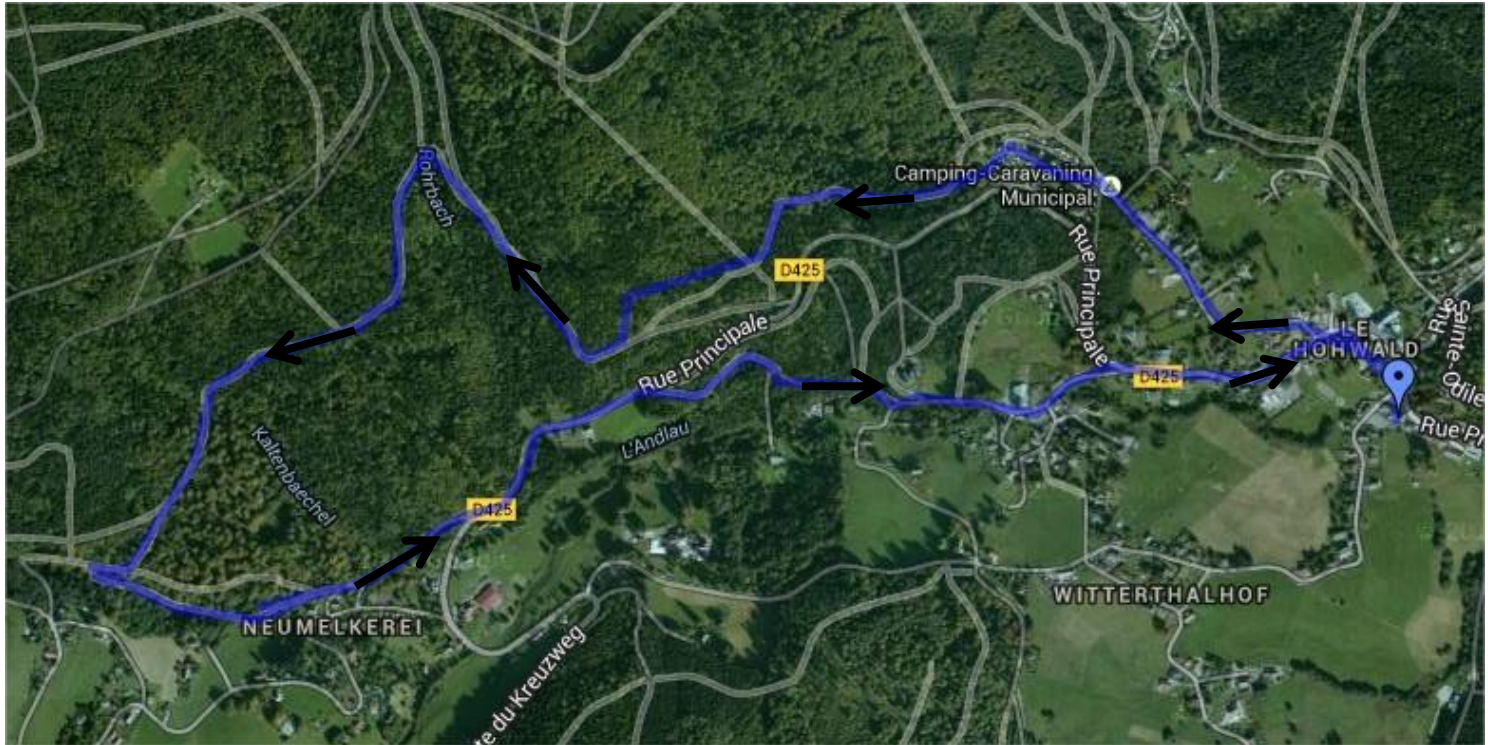

3 The Waterfall – Le Hohwald

KM +33 (0) 3 88 08 33 92 – www.pays-de-barr.com

This waterfall of the river Andlau, which takes its spring in the Champ du Feu, reaches 15 M of height approximately. It's accessible all year long.

Crédit photo : O.T. Barr Bernstein

199

START: Tourist office – Square Kuntz- 67140 Le Hohwald

Outward :

1. From the Tourism Office, go to the principal street, and then take a right to Herrenhaus street.
2. At the camping ground, take the path with a red rectangle (GR5) which continues along the street.
3. Follow the forest road for a while, then the path on your left.
4. Arrive above the waterfall.

Return :

5. Take the red disc path which goes down to the road.
6. Follow this road for 200m and then take the red disc path on your right, into the forest.
7. You will arrive at the "Rue de la Mairie" which leads up to the "Rue principale".

