🚲 THE ROUTE

The Kochersberg lies North-West of Strasbourg and is well known for its particularly fertile soil. For a long time, it was called the "Breadbasket" of Strasbourg. Agricultural traditions are firmly rooted here and often passed down from generation to generation. Make the most of your stay here to enjoy the local produce, farm shops, landscapes and magnificent panorama over the Alsace Plain while learning about the ever-changing face of farming today.

VISITS?

♥ Chapelle Saint Laurent de Gougenheim

rue de la chapelle
67117 Gougenheim
03 88 70 54 94
The chapels are an integral part of the history of the Kochersberg and its surroundings. Take a walk along the Chapel Trail!

♥ Eglise Saint Laurent

rue de l'église
67270 Gougenheim
03 88 70 54 94
The present church tower, still decorated with Romanesque arches, dates from the late 11th and early 12th centuries. The spire and nave date from 1749 and 1843. In the cemetery surrounding the building, there are some beautiful tombstones of different styles.

♥ Eglise Saint Pierre et Paul

petite rue de l'église
67270 Durningen
03 88 69 80 75
Around the church there was a fortified cemetery which surrounded the church. It was moved to the exit towards Kienheim in the 18th century.

♥ Pèlerinage St Ulrich d'Avenheim

Place St Ulrich - Rue de la Fontaine
67370 Avenheim
03 88 21 46 92
Near the fountain dedicated to St. Ulrich, a small building with cabins reminds us of the time when people deprived of modern medical care resorted to pilgrimage with prayers and curative baths.

♥ Eglise Saint Ulrich

Place Saint Ulrich
67370 Avenheim
03 88 69 94 06

Saint Ulrich is said to be the origin of the village of Avenheim. Several Alsatian parishes have him as their patron saint, including the church in Avenheim.

♥ Vitraux de Le Chevallier Jacques de l'Eglise de Schnersheim

place de l'église
67370 Schnersheim
03 88 21 46 92

The Church of St. Stephen in Schnersheim is illuminated by the magnificent multi-coloured stained glass windows.

♥ Eglise St Maurice de Willgottheim

Place du Curé Bertomé
67370 Willgottheim
03 88 69 72 68

The bell tower of the church of St Maurice, dating from 1170, is one of the most beautiful bell towers in the Kochersberg. It has four levels, the lower three of which are decorated with Lombard arcatures reminiscent of the façade of the abbey of Marmoutier.

♥ Playground

rue felsch
67370 Neugartheim
Ittlenheim
03 88 21 46 92

This playground, located on the edge of a pond, will delight the whole family thanks to its natural and soothing setting and the multitude of games available for children.
