STEPS

Wintzfelden - ancien couvent du Schwartzenthann

Walk up Rue des Vosges, at the top of the road take the path that descends on the left between two houses towards the Schwartzenthann monastery. You will cross beautiful meadows and come to a crossroads where the Schwartzenthann monastery is signposted either by path or cart track. Take the route you like better. The path is probably a bit more picturesque, but with small children or an "all-terrain" pram, you should prefer the cart path. When you arrive at the ruins of the former monastery, take advantage of the signs posted there that give you an idea of what the monastery might have looked like in the Middle Ages.

Then take the wide path marked with a blue triangle towards the Col du Bannstein. At the crossroads, after about 2 km, take the track on the left towards Thannwiller (do not go up towards the Col du Bannstein). The forest opens out into magnificent meadows. You will then pass through a small hamlet, and at the crossroads turn left onto the small tarmac road. When you reach the main road, be careful and keep to the left as you climb back to your starting point (yellow round markings).
