Turckheim © INFRA - ADT

Head towards Ammerschwihr from Kayersberg, land of the Kafferkopf Grand Cru. Then to Katzenthal and its square-keept castle. Going towards Turckheim, on the right, you will see the twisted bell tower of Niedermorschwihr church. After Turckheim, the route continues through the fields and meadows towards Ingersheim, then to Sigolsheim and its imposing Roman church. Follow the signs leading you back to Kayersberg, where the town walls can be seen.

If you would like to discover the charming little town of Munster, take the cycle path which follows the railway line. Return to Turckheim via either the cycle path or the road, which goes through the Munster Valley's villages.
