This itinerary is like a tasting session... without moderation! Start at the foot of the vineyards to discover the three wine-producing villages of the valley, cradles of Grand Crus, then climb to the top of the Galtz to enjoy the beauty of the panorama over the Alsace plain.

DEPARTURE: Kaysersberg town hall

MARKINGS:

DESCRIPTION

1 From the town hall, go down Rue Gén. de Gaulle. Drive along the car park. On the right of the cemetery, cross the D415 and join the path towards "AMMERSCHWIHR" (blue circle/St-Jacques). Go straight on until you reach Ammerschwihr.

2 Go under the High Gate and down the Grand Rue. At the level of the town hall, turn into "rue du Cerf" and walk up to the road. Cross the road and follow the yellow triangular signposting (St Jacques). After the chapel, go straight on ignoring the red ring. Further on, go down to the letters "KAEFFERKÖPF" and turn right. Continue until you reach Katzenthal.

3 In the village, go up the rue du vignoble and follow the direction "CHÂTEAU DU WINECK". At the castle, continue to climb following the red circle towards "LE GALTZ". At the next intersection, follow the blue circle to the Galtz monument. Go straight back down the wide path.

4 At the crossroads, go back down following the yellow signpost "AMMERSCHWIHR par le Burthal" to the golf course. Cross it straight on. Cross the D.11 and go straight on towards "CHAPELLE FLIEGER".

5 From the chapel, continue downhill (blue cross) towards KAYSERSBERG/St. Wolfgang's chapel. You will find the intersection at the start.
