FROM AMMERSCHWIHR TO THE SUMMIT OF GALTZ

From the top of its 23 meters at 731m of altitude, the Galtz monument is the destination of this hike and it will not leave you indifferent. You will have a unique 360° panorama over the Alsace plain and the Vosges mountains.

DEPARTURE: la Porte Haute in Ammerschwihr

MARKINGS:

DESCRIPTION

- From the Porte Haute, turn into Rue du Rempart. At the small bridge, turn left following the path along the river marked with a yellow easel. The path goes along the vineyards and leads to the D.11.1 road.
- Cross carefully and continue following the yellow signpost. Cross the golf course of Ammerschwihr and follow the road that leads you to the tourist residence. Follow the road and go to the end of the car park to find the forest path and the markings.
- Continue your ascent to the crossroads at the foot of the Galtz, following the yellow signpost. At the crossroads, head towards the Galtz by taking the wider path in the middle. It leads directly up to the monument.
- After climbing the monument, go down the path slightly and turn left following the blue circle towards Ammerschwihr. At the next intersection, take the left-hand path. Follow the same signs to Meywihr.
- Go up to the cross of Meywihr, the path goes down on the left and reaches the centre of Ammerschwihr.
