Terms and conditions pertaining to the wine tourism activity "Vendanges Touristiques" are as follows:

Article 1: Aims and objectives

The "grape harvesting for tourists" activity proposed by the tourist offices and piloted by SYNVIRA aims to present and explain grape harvesting, and to provide an introduction to the work done during the harvest period. Clients can also learn about vine growing and vinification.

Article 2: Client participation terms

- Clients purchase a wine tourism activity, namely an introduction to grape harvesting/grape pickers' lunch (according to choice). The purchase of wine is not obligatory in either case.
- Clients are under their own responsibility and are undertaking this activity of their own free will, with the objective of learning.
- There is no relationship of subordination between the clients who purchase the activity and the wine producer who accompanies them during the activity (an introduction to grape harvesting).
- Clients must wear appropriate clothing and footwear (old clothes because of grape stains, walking shoes or boots) in accordance with the weather.

Article 3: Prices

Individuals

- ½ day with meal 45 €
- ½ day without meal 30 €

Groups: minimum 10 people

- ½ day with meal 40 €
- ½ day without meal 25 €

Article 4: Cancellation due to bad weather

The tourist office reserves with right to cancel the activity due to bad weather.
Clients will be reimbursed.

Article 5: Items provided for clients (included in the price of the activity)

The wine producer undertakes to give each client a grape picker's kit including secateurs, an educational leaflet about grape picking and documentation about Alsace wines.

Article 6: Insurance

Accidents will be dealt with according to the civil code. Any material or physical damage is to be covered by the clients' civil responsibility insurance policy.

Booking implies acceptance of the charter of the above commitments
