Google maps

The 15-metre tower built by the Club Vosgien on the summit no longer allows visitors to see above the trees. The forest now obscures the view. It is still possible to climb the tower (avoid in rainy weather, as the stairs are slippery). Leave the tower and continue along the GR53 marked Castle + + towards the Col de l'Ungerthal.

4 Col de l'Ungerthal

After a 1.35 km descent that gradually levels out towards the northwest, you will arrive at the Col de l'Ungerthal. Cross the forest road, leave the GR53 and take the trail marked  towards Oberbronn (Daumen parking lot).

5 Back to the village of Oberbronn

After a 2.64 km descent and just before the first houses, follow the forest road on the right, which continues onto rue du Tribunal. This road leads back to the town hall, your starting point.
