STEPS

Departure from Col du Pfaffenschlick

From the pass road, go around the Pfaffenschlick inn on the right and follow the marked path that climbs towards the Treetop Walk Alsace.

1

Crossroads with the access road to the Treetop Walk Alsace

Continue climbing the path and cross the tarmac access road to the Treetop Walk Alsace. Head straight ahead and take the path that continues, following the signs to the site.

Treetop Walk Alsace site to visit

Pass by the Treetop Walk Alsace and take the opportunity to visit it. Walk along the structure, which stretches for over a kilometre horizontally through the treetops, then finish with a climb up the panoramic tower. A spectacular view of the Northern Vosges and the Alsace plain is guaranteed. In good weather, you may even be able to see Strasbourg Cathedral.

Turn right towards the anti-tank ditch.

Pass in front of the Treetop Walk Alsace and head towards the path leading to the anti-tank ditch. This section of the path is accessible to people with reduced mobility up to the footbridge over the ditch.

4

5

Crossing after footbridge

After crossing the footbridge, continue and turn towards the Stiefelsberg Pass.

6

Stiefelsberg Pass

At the pass, continue towards Climbronn Chapel, following the marking sign.

7

Porch of Climbronn Chapel and fountain

Pass by the porch of Climbronn Chapel and stop at the fountain below. Take a moment to admire the landscape stretching out over the hills of the Northern Vosges and observe the nearby village of Climbach. Picnic table available on site.

8 Car park near Climbach

After leaving the chapel porch, continue along the path for about 100 metres to reach the car park at the entrance to the forest. View of the village of Climbach below. Retrace your steps to return to the starting point at the Col du Pfaffenschlick.
